VOLUME LXVI.

ALEXANDRIA, VA., MONDAY EVENING, MAY 15, 1865

NUMBER 102.

PUBLISHED (DAILY) BY EDGAR SNOWDEN, Sr.
OFFICE—No. 104 King street,
Stone's (formerly French's) Book Store.

NEWS BY TO-DAY'S MAIL.

The New York Express says, there are thousands of idle people in that city, many of them returned soldiers, asking for work, while there is work in abundance in the country, upon farms and gardens, at good wages, as there will be upon houses and other buildings, when wages bear a closer relation to the value of gold.

During the present season 512 canal boats have left Cumberland, Md., with 55,111 tons of coal, and 46,213 tons have been shipped over the Baltimore and Ohio railroad.

The steamers City of London, Liverpool and Bavaria, for Southampton and Bremen, sailed from New York, on Saturday, full of passengers.

The world renowned performing elephant "Old Hannibal," who for almost half a century has been the greatest wonder of the animal kingdom, died in Bedford county, Pa., on the 7th instant.

The Old and New School General Assemblies of the Presbyterian Church will meet this year on the same day (Thursday, May 18,) the former at Pittsburg and the latter in Brooklyn.

Col. R. G. Saunders, an old soldier of the war of 1812, died recently at Leesburg, Loudoun county, Va., at the age of seventy-four years.

General Sherman has telegraphed General Howard that he should remain with his troops and march through to Alexandria with them.

There is a tremendous demand for passports at the State Department. They are now issued at the rate of one thousand a month.

The Pennsylvania troops are expected to give up their arms in Washington and return to their homes as soon as the proposed grand review is over.

The resignations of volunteer officers have been numerous the past week. The number of men mustered out was about fifteen thousand. All whose times expire prior to the 31st instant, will be immediately discharged.

One or two cargoes of new Bermuda potatoes have arrived at New York, and are selling at ten to twelve dollars a barrel. Bermuda onions have also been received and are selling at six and seven dollars a barrel.

The Richmond Whig says that "everybody that goes North comes back equipped from the crown of his head to the sole of his feet, in the latest Northern fashion."

Since the opening of the port of Richmond, Virginia, the tobacco dealers in Baltimore have all been on the qui vive for the first arrival of Virginia chewing tobacco, which is recognized by the lovers of the weed as the best made, being far preferable to that grown in the West or North. Several small lots have already arrived, and have been taken at high prices.

General Weitzell is out in a letter denying the statement that he had withdrawn a negro guard from General Lee's house, at the request of Mrs. Lee.

PROF. LOUIS WUNDERMAN'S BLOOD PURIFYING AND PURGATIVE HERBS

(In Pills and Powders.)

THE BEST BLOOD PURIFYING agents as yet known, have been most successfully used for over a quarter of a century in Europe, and for the last 4 years, also, in this country, and are particularly efficient in the cure of all chronic diseases. No one should despair of being cured without first trying them. No family should be without them, for by their timely use much sickness can be prevented. They are imported direct to this port by the undersigned, and their purity, efficacy and safety can be relied upon with perfect confidence.

The following are some of the diseases which have been permanently removed by their use:

Tetter, Inflammation
of the bowels,
consumption in its
early stages, headache,
asthma, cough, sore eyes,
lockjaw, raptures, rheumatism,
cramp colic, catarrh, pain in the breast and sides, deafness, nervousness, spotted fever, chills and fever, ague, open wounds, pneumonia, dyspepsia, salt rheum, cancer, scrofula, jaundice, tapeworm, biliousness, eruptions of the skin, bowel complaint, languor, gout, dropsy, erysipelas, worms, cholera, piles,
diarrhoea, hoarseness, swell-
ings, bloatings, blood,
and white flux, dysentery, costive-ness, meles, &c.

Full directions accompany each remedy
imported and for sale by.
